THE JAMES HARRIS HOUSE
Bellefonte - Centre County - Pennsylvania

Owner - Bellefonte Borough.

Date of Erection - 1795

Present Condition - In good state of preservation and is now being used as Borough Home.

Number of Stories - Three

Materials of Construction - Original conditions have been maintained with stone foundations, stone walls, slate
and shingled roofs and interior plastered walls.

The mahogany doors between the parlors and from parlors to hall were brought from the old Walnut Street Theatre in Philadelphia sometime after 1828, when the house was remodeled. At this time the double parlors on the Eastern front along with the typical Colonial doorway were added, the roof construction changed and the central hall was rebuilt.

Information received from Henry S. and Mary H. Linn, Bellefonte, Penna.
